Andrew Abrams brings to the firm over a decade of experience in the areas of civil defense litigation, government affairs, and intellectual property. He has worked extensively in matters involving representation of public bodies, commercial transactions and the music industry. He has also negotiated and structured numerous successful settlements and joint ventures on behalf of his clients.

Andrew strives to empower his clients with effective legal counsel and resources. Focusing on his clients' specific needs, he takes pride in individually tailoring legal services to accomplish their identified objectives. Whether drafting or reviewing a legal document, negotiating an agreement or contract, or providing representation in complex litigation, he is committed to the task at hand.

Andrew is a resident of uptown New Orleans and is the proud father of a son and daughter with his wife, Laura.
